If you are being abused you may feel alone and unable to make any serious decisions.

Advice and Support?

The organisations listed on this card will offer advice and support which may help.

You may just want to talk to someone about your options and not make any changes at the moment.

Are you physically, emotionally, or sexually abused by your partner or a family member?

If you feel alone, unsure what to do, or just want to talk in confidence, the organisations listed on this card may be able to help you.

You can also speak to your GP, midwife or Health Visitor

By contacting these numbers, you will not lose control of your life - you can just talk, ask questions, and find out more information to help you make decisions.
