

HELP AND HOPE

A conversation about suicide on World Suicide Prevention Day

We want to inspire confidence and light in everyone in the Black Country; that our actions, no matter how big or small, may provide hope to those who are struggling. Join us for a friendly and sensitive conversation about suicide; the help that is available and how we can all create hope through our actions.

Friday 10 September

10am-12noon

on Zoom

Register

www.pleaseregisterhere.eventbrite.co.uk

